

The City recognizes there are several unique characteristics of the Northwest 610 area that present issues and opportunities when examining future growth. This section provides the planning context and description of the major opportunities in the area.

